The Society may from time to time appoint a Patron and one or more Vice-Patrons to the Society.

6. MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

6.1 Classes of membership shall be Regular, Pensioner, Family, and any other determined from time to time by the Committee.

6.2 Any person or persons wishing to become a member of the Society shall make application for membership in such a manner as shall be accepted by the Committee from time to time. Upon the acceptance of the application by the Committee and upon payment of the first subscription the applicant will be afforded membership according to the appropriate category.

6.3 The Committee may decline to accept any such application without assigning any reason therefor.

6.4 The Society may elect on the recommendation of the Committee that an Honorary Life Membership shall be conferred on any member who has rendered especially valuable services to the Society. An Honorary Life Member shall thereupon be deemed to have paid all future subscriptions.

6.5 Annual subscriptions will be due for payment on the First Day of July in each year. The amount of subscription payable upon application will be for a full year where application is made between the first day of July and the thirty-first day of December in any year and thereafter, up to and including the thirtieth day of June, at the rate of one half of the annual amount relative to the appropriate category of membership. In all other cases reduced subscriptions will be payable only at the discretion upon receipt of a written request from any member.

6.6 The subscription for each category of membership shall be such sum as the Committee shall determine from time to time and which adjusted subscription shall apply in the ensuing financial year.

6.7 Any member whose subscription is outstanding for more than 3 months after the due date for payment shall cease to be a member of the Society, provided always that the Committee may reinstate such a person's membership on such terms as it sees fit.

6.8 The Secretary shall cause to be maintained a Register of Members.

6.9 Each member is bound to observe and abide by the Rules and any duly made alterations and/or modifications thereof.

7. DISCONTINUANCE OF MEMBERSHIP

Any member may resign membership by notice in writing to the Committee. A member so resigning shall be liable for any outstanding subscriptions or other monies due or payable to the Society and for any property of the Society in that member's possession at the time of such resignation.

7.1 The Committee shall have power upon giving at least one calendar month notice delivered personally or by certified mail to the address appearing in the register specifying the conduct to which objection is taken to call upon any member to attend a meeting of the Committee to justify and explain any conduct which in the opinion of the Committee is injurious to the interests of the Society.

7.2 The Committee shall have power to expel or suspend from membership or ask for the resignation of any offending member as described in the preceding Rule at the meeting or any subsequent meeting called to discuss the member's conduct.

7.3 In the event of non-attendance by such member at any such meeting the Committee may in the member's absence use the power given in this Rule.

7.4 Voting on the question shall be by secret ballot and the decision of the majority shall be final and shall be given by mail to the accused member within fourteen (14) days.

7.5 If the offending member is asked to resign and does not tender such resignation within fourteen (14) days of receiving such notice such member shall be expelled from membership of the Society.

8. COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

The affairs of the Society shall be managed and controlled exclusively by a Committee, elected by members in general meeting, which in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by these rules may exercise all such powers and do all such things as are within the objects of the Society, and are met by the Act or by these rules required to be done by the society in general meeting.

8.1 The Committee shall be comprised of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and up to six committee members all of whom shall be members of the Society. Supporting argument: that there are not always ten people willing and able to serve on the Committee.

8.2 All positions are Honorary and no member of the Committee shall be entitled to any remuneration or benefit from the income of the Society by virtue of holding a position on the Committee but may otherwise be employed by the Society.

8.3 The Committee shall have the power to appoint such officers and employees as are required to carry out the objects of the Society including a Public Officer required by the Act and may discuss or delegate any of its powers to such officers and employees including but not without limiting the foregoing to formulate By-Laws or terms of reference.

8.4 Committee members shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in carrying out their respective and/or allotted duties on behalf of the Society. Claims for reimbursement shall be submitted in written form as required from time to time by the Committee for approval prior to payment.

8.5 The first Committee, or whenever it for any reason whatsoever a new Committee is appointed shall hold office until the first annual general meeting thereafter at which time one-third of the members of the Committee, who shall be chosen by ballot shall retire from the Committee but shall be eligible for reappointment. At each subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the Committee, according to length of service, shall retire by rotation and be eligible for reappointment. In the event of equality of length of service, Committee members to retire in accordance with the foregoing shall be chosen by ballot.

8.6 A casual vacancy amongst the members of the Committee may be filled by the Committee and such a member shall hold office until the next annual general meeting and shall be eligible for reappointment.

8.7 A retiring Committee member shall be eligible to stand for re-election without nomination providing such person has signified a willingness to stand for election on or before the election unless a member of the Society has in writing nominated such member which nomination has been seconded by another member in writing which shall together with a written consent signed by the candidate to act, if elected, be delivered to the Secretary of the Society at least twenty-eight (28) days before the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting.

8.8 Notice of all persons seeking election to the Committee shall be given to all members of the Society with the notice calling the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.

8.9 If only the number of required number of persons are nominated to fill the existing vacancies, the Secretary shall report accordingly to the annual general meeting, and the Chairperson shall declare such persons duly elected as committee members.

8.10 The positions of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary, shall be filled by separate nomination and election at the Annual general Meeting, from elected members of the Committee. These positions shall be for a two-year term, generally from AGM to AGM.

9. DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBER OF COMMITTEE

The office of any Committee Member shall become vacant if a Committee Member is 9.1 Disqualified by the Act.

9.2 Expelled under these rules.

9.3 Permanently incapacitated by ill-health.

9.4 Absent without apology from more than three (3) consecutive committee meetings, or more than three (3) committee meetings in a financial year.

10. PROCEEDINGS OF COMMITTEE

10.1 The Committee shall meet together for the despatch of business at least once every quarter.

10.2 Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes and in the event of equality of votes the Chairperson shall have a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

10.3 A quorum to the meeting of the Committee shall be five (5) members thereof.

10.4 A member of the Committee having a pecuniary interest in a contract with the Society must disclose that interest to the Committee as required by the Act, and shall not vote with respect to that contract.

11. COMMITTEE

The Committee may appoint and form from the Membership of the Society such sub-committees as are deemed acceptable and desirable by the Committee and may depute to them such powers and duties of the Committee as it may from time to time determine. Such sub-committee shall keep minutes of and report its proceedings to the Committee regularly as requested by the Committee and shall conduct its business as discussed by the Committee.

12. FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Society shall be the period commencing on the First (1) Day of July in each year and ending on the Thirtieth (30) Day of June.

13. RULES

Subject to approval by a resolution of the members of the Society these rules may be altered (including an alteration to name), or be rescinded and replaced by substituted rules. Such an alteration shall be registered with the Commission as required by the Act. The registered rules shall bind the Society and every member to the same extent as if they had respectively signed and sealed them, and agreed to be bound by all of the provisions thereof.

14. THE SEAL

14.1 The Society shall have a common seal upon which its corporate name shall appear in legible characters.

14.2 The seal shall not be used without the express authorisation of the Committee and every use of the seal shall be recorded in the minute book of the Society. The affixing of the seal shall be witnessed by the President and Secretary at the time.

14.3 The seal shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary or such other person as the Committee may from time to time decide.

15. MEETINGS

15.1 The committee may call a special general meeting of the society at any time, and shall call an annual general meeting in accordance with the Act.

The annual general meeting shall be held within five (5) months after the end of its financial year.

15.2 Upon a requisition in writing of not less than five per cent (5%) of the total number of members, or where the total number of members exceeds five hundred (500) then any twenty-five (25) members of the Society, the Committee shall within one month of the receipt of the requisition, convene a special general meeting for the purpose specified in the requisition.

15.3 Every requisition for a special general meeting shall be signed by the members making the same and shall state the purpose of the meeting.

15.4 If a special general meeting is not convened within one month as required by sub-rule 15.3 the requisitionists may convene a special general meeting. Such a meeting shall be convened in the same manner as a meeting convened by the Committee and for this purpose the Committee shall ensure that the requisitionists are supplied free of charge with particulars of the members entitled to receive a notice of meeting. The reasonable expenses of convening and conducting such a meeting shall be borne by the Society.

15.5 Subject to sub-rule 15.7 at least fourteen (14) days' notice of any general meeting shall be given to members. The notice shall set out where and when the meeting will be held and particulars of the nature and order of business to be transacted at the meeting. In the case of an annual general meeting, the order of business at the meeting shall be the consideration of the Financial Statements and Reports of the Committee and the Auditors, the Appointment of Auditors and Committee Members (if requires), and Any Other Business requiring consideration by the Society in general meeting.

15.6 Notice of a meeting at which a special resolution is to be proposed shall be given at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the meeting.

15.7 A notice may be given by the Secretary to any member by serving the member with the notice personally, or by sending it by post or electronic mail to the address appearing in the Register of Members.

15.8 Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected if it is properly addressed and posted to the member by ordinary prepaid mail.

16. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

The Secretary shall cause the establishment and maintenance of the Register of Members and shall ensure that the same is current detailing the names of members for the time being.
