

FREE Quality Use of Medicines Session

Do you take medicines regularly?

Would you like to communicate better with your doctor?

Would you like to know where to get independent,
reliable information about your health?

*In conjunction with Consumers' Health Forum of Australia
Health Consumers Alliance of South Australia Inc are offering a free Quality Use of Medicine Session*

For

People that use medicines regularly or care for people who use medicines

Date: Thursday 13 October 2005

Time: 1pm-4pm

Venue: Bethlehem House, 12 Sudholz Place, Adelaide (just east of Flinders St – Pulteney St intersection)*

Provided: *Light Lunch *Afternoon tea *A Community QUM resources pack at the session to take home

There is a maximum of 30 participants

Cost: FREE

To ensure your place, please RSVP to the Health Consumers Alliance on 08 8223 1374

*Car parking close by.
If using public transport into city, Bethlehem House is accessible via 'The City Loop' (free bus) from Adelaide Railway Station and Victoria Sq.

